She stated the School Board would welcome suggestions from interested parents.

Mark Amey asked why school meeting couldn't be scheduled for the same night as town meeting. It would help in attendance.

SUPERINTENDENT'S REPORT

School board members, school personnel, and interested community members continue to wrestle with the problem of improving and upgrading school facilities. As this necessary task continues, progress has been made in improving educational programs.

An art teacher position was added to the staff, working with all students on a four day per week schedule. One day is spent in Stewartstown.

Additional computers have been purchased to give students more time at "hands-on" experiences in computer science.

The "Odyssey of the Mind" program was introduced to students in the upper elementary grades, giving students the opportunity to work together in creative problem solving and compete against students in other schools. Also, a student council has been formed at this level and hopefully in the future, they will carry on into the high school.

Through the limited funding we receive from vocational education grants, equipment is being upgraded in the business and home economics areas.

Much of what is being done in the daily routines of the educational process needs to be documented. Sub-committees comprised of teachers, the principal, and board members are working together to write a school philosophy, establish discipline guidelines, and set standards for academic excellence. Curriculum development continues to be a priority for school staff.

After a lengthy process of negotiations which went to impasse and mediation, an agreement was finally reached which keeps teacher salaries competitive with other north country districts. Though teacher turn-over was significantly high, we were fortunate to hire well qualified teachers, many with prior experience.

The Clarksville and Pittsburg School Boards have held, and will continue to hold, joint meetings in a cooperative effort to improve programs at the Pittsburg School.

It seems that new issues are always on the horizon in the education domain. Three come to mind that the State Board of Education and the Department of Education want us to address:

AIDS prevention education
Character/values education
Drop-out prevention programs.

We are well aware that funding is limited, not only for education, but also for the necessary community projects such as sewer, landfill, road maintenance, etc..... As a new session of the legislature begins, it is important to stay informed and be sure that our legislators are acting in our interests in assuring that mandated programs and projects are fully funded. I believe most of us can and should do a better job in communicating with our area legislators.

Respectfully submitted,

Paul F. Allen
Superintendent of Schools

COORDINATOR OF SPECIAL SERVICES

During the 1987-88 school year, there were approximately 100 students within the S A U #7 needing Special Education Services. These services have been offered through regular and special education classrooms except in a few cases where the severity of the handicap or an order of the court has necessitated out-of-district placement.

The overall quality of services in the seven special educational settings has been good and, in some instances, exceptional. In particular, Ms. Norma Chenevert, the previous Coordinator of Special Services, has become Head Teacher as well as Resource Room Teacher at the West Side School in Stewartstown. Her dedication and knowledge of the field of special education have made a profound difference on the students in that school.

We have been fortunate in being able to provide quality services in the related areas of Speech/Language, Occupational Therapy & School Psychology through contracts with local professionals. Physical Therapy, Vision and Diagnostic Services have also been provided through various local and regional agencies.

We have continued to see the benefit of providing services for preschool handicapped children. Early identification and intervention appear to be ameliorating problems in many of these children prior to entering first grade.

Tutorial programs for vocationally disadvantaged students provided benefits for high school students in Pittsburg and Colebrook.

Two staff members continue to pursue Special Education Certification through the Pool Expansion Program (PEP). This program is administered by the State Department of Education to attract teaching professionals into the field of Special Education.

There has been an emphasis to coordinate curriculum and student objectives among the various Special Education classrooms in the S A U.

Parents, teachers, school boards, and administrators continue to provide the support necessary to enable our programs to be responsive to student needs.

Respectfully submitted,

Thomas Oren
Coordinator of Special Services

SCHOOL HEALTH REPORT

Prevention, through education and various services, is the prime objective of the Health Services Program in school. Our goal is to allow children to develop an understanding of the importance of protecting their health and to obtain knowledge of the ways in which it can be maintained.

We continue to make use of all the service agencies, both local and state, that we have had access to in the past. Our usual screening procedures (ie, vision, hearing, etc....) were also conducted on every student.

Two new state laws have been recently passed that affect the school. The first law, condensed from RSA 193, 141, and 200, has made the following changes in our immunization program: "All parents or legal guardians shall have their children who are residing in this state immunized against certain diseases. These diseases shall include, but not be limited to, diphtheria, mumps, pertussis, poliomyelitis, rubella, rubeola, and tetanus." Measles (rubeola), rubella, and mumps must have all been received after one year of age. If the child has already had one of the above diseases, doctor documented proof or a titre must be on file at the school. All children in the preschool program must have an up-to-date immunization record. This law was passed in January, 1988, and went into effect in September, 1988.

The second law was passed in July, 1988, and deals with the health education program. It is listed under RSA 21, 186, and 189. This law sets minimum standards for N H Public Elementary Schools in regard to health education. All schools are in the process of expanding their health curriculum. A grant was written last year to purchase the "Here's Looking At You, 2000" drug and alcohol education program for grades K-4 for use in all the S A U #7 schools. Education is the key to prevention.

To enrich our drug and alcohol education program, we were fortunate to have a presentation from Sgt. Lowe, a police detective with expertise in drug enforcement. We also had a presentation from the N H Safety Council on Seat Belts. Dr. Gifford came in to assist us with our AIDS education program. We would like to thank him for his assistance and concern in this area.

Dr. Goodman presented a workshop dealing with Pediatric Updates. The school nurse attended the series. We would like to thank him for his assistance with our school health program during his tenure as our school physician.

Please feel free to contact your school nurse in regard to any health matter that concerns you.

Respectfully submitted,

Elizabeth vonDohrmann, RN, BSN
Pittsburg/Stewartstown School Nurse

PITTSBURG-CLARKSVILLE CHAPTER ONE PROJECT

The Pittsburg-Clarksville Chapter One Project is a federally funded effort to provide special assistance for school children who have been identified as individuals likely to benefit from additional individualized learning activities. Selection for participation in these programs is based upon achievement test results, teacher referrals, and parental requests for service.

Through the Chapter One program, the skills taught in regular classrooms are re-inforced thus helping to ensure that participating children will progress successfully from grade to grade. A variety of activities and educational materials are used. Computer software, reading stations, instructional games, and self-paced individualized reading and math programs were used as the base for this supplementary program.

Because of a limited budget, the Pittsburg-Clarksville program focuses on reading and math skills in grades one, two, and three only. This program focus is the result of parent and teacher surveys which have identified math and reading skills in the early years as the most critical ingredients in the long term academic success of students.

We have been very fortunate to have enjoyed strong support and excellent cooperation from our classroom teachers, Miss Hoover, Mrs. Fish, and Mrs. Pariseau. They have been instrumental in the successes of the Chapter One programs. The support of parents has been greatly appreciated also and has contributed to the overall excellence of our Chapter One effort.

The 1987-88 school year brought change to the Chapter One program. Mrs. Kate Lord, who served as Chapter One Project Director for the past nine years, retired from the director's position. She was responsible for the development of our present program. Because of her leadership and commitment, many of our students have been given that extra boost allowing them to experience the joys of success. As the individual responsible for the overall operation of our Chapter One program, she was a key contributor to the successes this program has experienced.

As Interim Project Manager, I wish to take this opportunity to thank all the staff and the many parents whose combined efforts have provided support and increased the benefits shared by Chapter One students.

Respectfully,

Winston Young
Interim Project Manager
